This Week's Photoplays

Crandall's.

A mythical European monarchy over-run by revolutionists is the setting given "The Gilded Cage," the photo-play attraction at Crandall's today, to-morrow, and Tuesday.

Alice Brady is seen in the role of Princess Honore, who comes from a convent to take her place on the throne. How she brings order out of chaos vides a highly interesting plot. The supporting cast includes Aleo B. Francis, Gerda Holmes, Clara Whipple, Montagu Love, Arthur Ashley, and Iring Cummings.

The attraction Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday will be "The War Bride's Secret." Virginia Pearson portrays the role of a Scotch lassie who secretly marries a soldier just before he goes to the front. She hears of his death, and yields to the importunities of her father and weds another man. Glen White and Walter Law have the prinolpal roles. showing of "The Dark featuring Clara Kimball be given Saturday.

Leader.

Ward will again be seen at the Leader Theater in "Each Pearl a Tear." Tomorrow and Thursday Mae Murray, will be seen in the drama of New York Life, "The Big Slater," together with Burton Holmes' pictur-ised lecture, "The Italian Corner of Austria."

Beginning Wednesday and continuing for two days, Pauline Frederick, will be presented in a picturization of Israel Zangwill's story, "The Moment Before," a story which presents this famous star as a gypsy girl who becomes the wife of a wealthy man and a leader of her social set.

Louise Huff will appear Friday and Saturday in "The Reward of Patience." an appealing story of a Quaker girl's romance.

Savoy.

At Crandall's Savoy today the Triangle-Fine Arts subject, "The Marof Molly-O," will be the attraction. Mae Marsh and Robert Harron are featured. As an additional attraction, Louise Fazenda will be seen in "The Feathered Nest."

"The Feathered Nest."

Sessue Hayakawa will be presented tomorrow in "The Honorable Friend." Other pictures to be shown during the week are:

Tuesday, Viola Dana in "The Light of Happiness;" Wednesday, Marie Doro in "Common Ground;" Thursday, Robert Warwick in "Friday, the 13th;" Friday, Frank Keenan and Charles Ray in "Honor Thy Name," and De Wolf Hopper in "The Mummy and the Girl;" Saturday, Lou Tellegen in "The Victory of Conscience."

"Hulda From Holland," a romantic frama in which the title role is portrayed by Mary Pickford, is today's at Crandall's Apollo. "Little Mary" is seen as a quaint Mittle Dutch girl who comes to Ameries to live with her uncle in Penn-arlyania. The supporting cast in-cludes John Bowers and Frank

Leose,
A visualisatioon of the stage success "The Prince Chap," will be seen tomorrow with George Fawcett, Marchall Neilan and Bessie Eyton in the featured roles. Other attractions for the week are:

Tuesday, Gall Kane and House Peters in "The Velvet Paw;" Wednesday, Marguerite Clark in "Little Lady Eileen;" Thursday, Viola Dana in "The Light of Happiness;" Friday, Vivian Martin in "The Stronger Love;" Saturday, Kathlyn Williams in "The Vallants of Virginia."

Avenue Grand.

Peters and Gall Kane are jointly featured at Crandall's Avenue Grand today in "The Velvet Paw." Most of the scenes were in this city. "The Dividend," with William H. of the scenes were photographed Thompson and Charles Ray in the leading roles, will be shown tomorrow. As an added attraction, Fay Tincher will be seen in "Bedelia's Bluff." The program for the remainder of the week includes:

cludes:
Tuesday, Blanche Sweet in "The Thousand-Dollar Husband:" Wednesday, Viola Daha in "The Light of Happiness;" Thursday, William Farnum in
